What You May Expect
Presbytery of Ohio Valley
Assembly June 15, 2017

One of the ways we will respond to the Word at this meeting is through a time of small group conversations about race. Rooted in our faith story, we will reflect on our individual and collective stories of race and racism. These conversations will center on experiences rather than opinions, and stories rather than ideas.

We will be guided in our work by the Rev. Tricia Lloyd-Sidle, who will also serve as our preacher for the day. Tricia has lived and worked in South America, Central America and the Caribbean as well as in the U.S. She is passionate about economic and racial justice, and grateful that her administrative work on the presbytery, general assembly and ecumenical levels allowed her to learn and express those passions in many ways. Tricia lives in Louisville, where she provides leadership for Louisville Showing Up for Racial Justice (LSURJ) in its outreach to faith communities.

Please use an online source or printed map to find the way from your starting point to the place where these directions begin. The POV website has all church locations marked on Google Maps to assist you.

Occasionally, there may be construction/detours that we are unaware of. To be prepared for this possibility, it is wise to have a map, Google map printout, or GPS navigation available, just in case.

Evangelism & Congregational Witness Committee Report

The Rev. Katrina Pekich-Bundy, Moderator

The Evangelism and Congregational Witness Committee met via Zoom on April 25. We are excited to be supporting Transparent Church, a new worshipping community within the presbytery, led by Rev. Larry Jackman. This community is up and running, and we encourage you to check it out at www.transparent.church.

Transparent Church holds a weekly lectionary group via video conference call and creates a space of creativity and learning for those leaders that are in isolated areas. The ECW committee has assigned a liaison to the new worshipping community to aid in communication and support.

The committee has also been in contact with a Spanish speaking group interested in creating a new worshipping community. We plan to meet again soon to discuss other ways we can offer resources within the presbytery.

Elder Cheryl Moles, Moderator

For Presbytery action:

That the following people be elected to leadership:

Elder Alanna Charleton (Indiana, Vincennes)
Elder Rick Smith (First, Seymour)

Permanent Judicial Commission:

For Presbytery information:

The Committee has been preparing for its work to nominate commissioners to the 223rd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), which will meet in St. Louis, Missouri, June 16-23, 2018. We will use criteria for eligibility similar to those used for the 222nd G.A. (see attached). For this cycle, we ask that those who do not wish to be considered to inform us by September 30, 2017. In addition, those who wish to receive special consideration are asked to inform us by the same date. The committee is still in conversation about how to make its nomination from among those eligible, and will consult with the Presbytery Council at its August meeting.

We invite comment from those in the presbytery concerning the nomination of General Assembly commissioners. Please comment in writing to committee moderator Cheryl Moles at cheryl@thcpc.org. The next meeting of the committee is June 27, 2017.

Additionally, we invite self-referrals from those who wish to be considered for a presbytery committee or commission. A description of those entities may be found on our website: <http://presbyteryov.org>, under “Presbytery Design and Committee Structure.”

POV Academy

Elder Trudy Vanderbeck, Moderator

Presbytery of Ohio Valley Overview for the Certification Process Ruling Elders Commissioned to Pastoral Service

Only ordained PC (USA) ruling elders are eligible to be commissioned to particular pastoral service in our presbytery. The term certification means that the elder has completed all of the requirements and has been authorized by the POV Academy Committee for possible commissioning in the Presbytery of Ohio Valley. It does not mean that any openings exist at the present time or that the elder is guaranteed to find a position even if there are openings. Finding a position is the responsibility of the certified elder, not the presbytery. The process includes the following elements:

Education. The student will satisfactorily complete coursework in the following areas: Biblical Interpretation, Reformed Theology and Church History, The Christian Life, Mission and Evangelism, Worship and Sacraments, Teaching the Bible, Polity and Administration, Pastoral Care, and Preaching the Bible. The committee's preferred educational program is offered online by Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, and can be found by visiting <https://www.upsem.edu/leadership-institute/pathways-learning-leadership-2/>. A brief description of each course, including the dates the courses are offered, is attached. Courses are online, and the cost is $100 per course. Students are encouraged to register promptly for these courses. Alternatives to the Union Seminary program will require the approval of the POV Academy Committee.

Cohort Meetings and Spiritual Life Retreat. Students will participate in occasional cohort meetings and a spiritual life retreat. The time and place of these meetings will be announced at a later time.

Portfolio. The student will compile a portfolio consisting of the following items collected in separate folders for each of the courses: a. Course summary page, b. Reading list, c. Any written assignments that were submitted, and d. A reflection paper following the completion of the course, using guidelines provided by the committee.

Application. At the time determined by the POV Academy Committee (POVAC), the elder will complete the POV Certification Application Form and submit it, along with the portfolio to date, to the POVAC. This application includes an endorsement by the student's session. Note: only students who have been ordained as Ruling Elders may apply.

Psychological and Vocational Evaluation and Background Check. The POVAC will arrange a psychological and vocational evaluation for the elder at the elder's expense. The elder's Session is encouraged to help with this expense. Background checks at POV expense will also be completed.

Initial Interview. After the results of the psychological and vocational evaluations and the application have been received, the POVAC will arrange an interview with the elder to discuss his/her application, portfolio including statement of faith, and evaluation results.

Final Interview. After the portfolio has been completed, the POVAC will invite the elder to the final interview to determine whether or not to certify that person ready to seek a call as a Ruling Elder Commissioned to Particular Pastoral Service. In preparation for this interview, the elder will be asked to respond in advance to a number of questions in writing. The elder will be notified in writing of the committee's decision within 1 week after the next regularly scheduled committee meeting.

Questions about the process? Please contact the presbytery office, and we will forward your questions to the appropriate person.

How does each Gospel focus central themes in its narrative about Jesus through his telling of parables? What do the parables have to say to twenty-first-century listeners? How does Jesus present parables in a way that leaves decision and action in the hands of those who hear? This five-week course on the Parables of Jesus will explore questions such as these, and in so doing invite participants to deepen their understanding of the Gospels, and to gain fresh insight into the mission and message of Jesus—for both first and twenty-first centuries.
