A Covenant Among The Presbytery of Ohio Valley,
The Presbytery of Whitewater Valley, and the Pyoca Camp and Retreat Center (proposed 2022 revision)

I. Parties

This revised covenant is entered into between the Presbyteries of Ohio Valley and Whitewater Valley and Pyoca Camp and Retreat Center, Inc. (PCRC), an Indiana not-for-profit public benefit corporation. The original covenant was agreed to by all parties in 2019.

II. Covenant

The Presbyteries of Ohio Valley and Whitewater Valley and the PCRC covenant together to affirm our support for Camp Pyoca, and our present and historic partnership and mutuality of purpose in providing for Camp Pyoca and to outline the promises of all parties to each other as the PCRC establishes itself as a non-profit camp and retreat center to carry on the mission and purpose of Camp Pyoca. Recognizing that the future may bring significant changes for the PCRC and the partner Presbyteries, it is anticipated that this Covenant will be revised as circumstances evolve, and agree to review and renew this Covenant at least every three years, or at the request of any of the parties as circumstances require.

III. The Promises of the Presbyteries of Ohio Valley and Whitewater Valley to the PCRC

- A. The Presbyteries provide PCRC an affiliation with the Presbyterian Church (USA) and recognize PCRC as an institution related to both Presbyteries through this Covenant. The Presbyteries recognize PCRC as an institution with ties to the Presbyterian Church (USA) where programs with multiple denominations and/or interfaith endeavors may take place.
- B. Recognizing that PCRC will be an independent entity, the Presbyteries will encourage their pastors and congregations to consider the PCRC for summer camping programs, retreats, and/or other conferences hosted by the PCRC. They will publicize the PCRC camps, retreats, and other programs on their web sites and in emails, newsletters, etc., and will provide links on their web sites to the PCRC home page.
- C. The Presbyteries will collaborate with the PCRC in planning and sponsoring events each year designed to meet the needs of the Church: these may include, but are not limited to Presbytery assemblies, youth conferences, or pastor retreats.
- D. The staff and leaders of both Presbyteries will strive to remain informed about the programs and policies of the PCRC, and will support and interpret its mission.
- E. Each Presbytery will provide access to its Council, and will offer the PCRC the opportunity to report at its regular assemblies.
- F. Each Presbytery will name two nominees to the PCRC Board of Directors each year through its normal election process. Should the Board of Directors not elect a nominee from a Presbytery, it will request that the Presbytery nominate an alternative.
- G. The Presbyteries will encourage support of the PCRC through inclusion of financial support in their annual budgets, and will encourage congregations to participate in the financial support and fundraising objectives of the PCRC, in consultation with and in collaboration between the PCRC and the Presbytery Councils.

IV. An Additional Promise of the Presbytery of Whitewater Valley to the PCRC

The Presbytery of Whitewater Valley, working through the Board of Directors and the Coordinating Council, intends at the appropriate time to transfer the current Camp Pyoca real property, fixtures, equipment, and tangible assets to the new independent PCRC for reasonable consideration. Terms of this transfer to be addressed in a separate Transition Agreement between the Presbytery of Whitewater Valley and the PCRC.

V. The Promises of the PCRC to the Presbyteries of Ohio Valley and Whitewater Valley

- A. The PCRC covenants to offer staff leadership and physical facilities for appropriate training events, programs, seminars, and related activities, including events specifically designed to meet the needs of the Presbyteries, their member congregations, and their other organizations and institutions.
- B. The PCRC will provide complimentary weekday lodging for renewal and study leave to pastoral leaders and youth staff of congregations from both Presbyteries, and will communicate this amenity to the Presbyteries each year.
- C. The PCRC will offer a lodging discount to congregations from both Presbyteries for youth, adult, and family retreats, and will communicate this discount to the Presbyteries each year.
- D. The PCRC Board of Directors will operate according to its bylaws. The PCRC will provide both Presbyteries an annual financial report with periodic updates as necessary at the request of the leadership of either Presbytery.
- E. The PCRC will provide programming and leadership to uphold the historic and present focus of the Reformed tradition.
- F. The PCRC will cooperate and collaborate with both Presbyteries, seeking ways to support them, their member congregations, and their other organizations and institutions.

VI. Additional Promises of the PCRC to the Presbytery of Whitewater Valley

- A. The PCRC will maintain the real property, fixtures, equipment, and tangible assets of Camp Pyoca and of the PCRC in good working order and repair, and will make improvements as finances allow and needs require.
- B. During the transition of Camp Pyoca to an independent camp and retreat center and until a final transfer of the property is executed, the PCRC shall not incur any material indebtedness without the advance approval of the Presbytery of Whitewater Valley. In the spirit of the historic partnership of Camp Pyoca and the Presbytery of Whitewater Valley, consultation between the PCRC and the Presbytery of Whitewater Valley concerning encumbrances on the land or buildings shall continue once the transition is complete (in keeping with the provision in Section VI. C. below).
- C. The PCRC Board of Directors will not sell any land or buildings transferred to it from the Presbytery of Whitewater Valley without prior consultation with and approval from the Presbytery's Board of Directors. If at any time in the future the PCRC is formally dissolved, declares bankruptcy, has a receiver appointed, or finds it is unable to continue as an independent entity, its real and personal assets remaining after provision for payment of valid debts and liabilities shall be distributed to the Presbytery or its successor.

2022 PRESBYTERY PRAYER PARTNERS

The Presbytery of Ohio Valley encourages all our congregations to pray for each other over a two-year span. Sharing prayers with each other works! Here's how you can help:

By the tenth of the month preceding the month for your church, please send a paragraph or two telling a little about your church or organization – size and activities, location and neighborhood, special programs, history, and anything else that would help others in the presbytery get a better sense of who and where you are. Also send us any joys you'd like to share or prayer requests for your church activities or programs. If your church is in a parish, we'd also appreciate information on the benefits you feel parish membership has brought to the parish churches.

Email your information to office@presbyteryov.org. Call 866-344-7853 for more information.
