*In the Spirit let us travel,
open to each other's pain,
let our loves and fears unravel,
celebrate the space we gain:
clear the chaos and the clutter,
clear our eyes, that we can see all the things that really
matter,
be at peace, and simply be.*

Imagine...

An Intentional Start To A New Year ..

A chance to begin 2012 with three days dedicated to offering the new year to God .. while deliberately seeking God's guidance for what the new year might hold.

A Chance To Get-Way From The "Usual" .. in a fresh place, apart from common daily distractions .. to revisit yourself as God created you.

An Opportunity To Be With Others Who Take Their Faith Seriously .. in fellowship with other Christians, other Presbyterians, to talk about things of substance.

An Encounter With Spiritual Insights .. as we will explore aspects of Christian reflection, prayer, and worship led by two leaders with years of training in this area.

An Occasion To Be On "Holy Ground" .. during our time at St. Meinrad, persons will have the invitation to walk on ground that was specifically designed to encourage spiritual contemplation.

A Chance To Worship With The Monks Of St. Meinrad .. to experience the awesome and ancient sound of the chanting of the Psalms by the men of the monastery .. a sound that will linger for a long time.

A Freedom To "Let Go And Let God" .. to do whatever the Holy Spirit wants to do with these hours in your life and in ours together ..

If your imagination is stirred, come join us January 6-8 as we seek to find the quiet center which Christ offers us.

We invite you to be a part of the Spiritual Formation Retreat sponsored by Ohio Valley Presbytery.
