

What does the Young Presbyterian Scholarship (YPS) involve?

MENTORS from the sophomore, junior and senior classes have the opportunity to help first year students through all the changes and adjustments that college brings.

DISCUSSION HOURS are interactive events offered three times each semester often with small group leaders who are volunteers from Westminster's faculty and staff.

LEADERSHIP in a variety of campus groups, mission opportunities, retreats & events which allow YPS students to share their church leadership experiences through other campus and community groups.

Would your church like to offer two good students a great scholarship?

EVERY CHURCH! CAN.

The Young Presbyterian Scholarship is worth $74,000 EACH.

Take a look!

Young Presbyterian Scholarship $74,000 per student ($18,500 per year)

That is $148,000 in scholarships every congregation can give each year.

In 2002, Westminster celebrated 150 years as a church-related college. In honor of this milestone, the Board of Trustees established The Young Presbyterian Scholarship.

Outstanding PC(USA) students in their senior year of high school may be nominated by their pastor or congregation to receive a four-year scholarship based on their church involvement and academic success.

ALL PC(USA) congregations are invited to nominate 2 qualified students annually
