Our Hope for years to come.”*

Celebrating 200 Years!

A little history . . .

The United Presbyterian Church of Princeton, Indiana, was founded when two local families, the Archers and the Hogues, realized the need for a church in the settlement of Princeton. In 1809, Samuel Hogue traveled to Tennessee where he met Rev. John Kell. The next year, 1810, Rev. Kell came to Princeton and with the two families he established a “Society” for prayer and religious conversation. This was the beginning of our United Presbyterian Church.
